Pe-ru-na the Remedy.

DR. J. W. FULLER, Scientific Opti-cian, 203 North Main St., Los Angeles, Cal., writes:

"I was troubled with catarrh of the head for many years. It affected my cense of smell, hearing and sight. "I spent lots of money with doctors and the use of local applications to relieve me, but to no purpose until my attention was called to the wonderful effects of Peruna. "I must say that I met with most surprising and satisfactory results. Peruna took hold of the complaint and drove it entirely out of my system. "Although well along toward the allotted span of man's life, I am as pleased as a child over the results, and feel like a young man again."

Found Dead in Bed.

L. F. Hull an Old Business, Man Expired Suddenly-Wife Dreamed He Was Dead.

Leon Frank Hull was found dead in bed by his wife early Sunday morning. He had been in poor health for some time and last week sold his business. Saturday evening he sought medical asspond to her call she sent for a physician, who gave his opinion that Mr. Hull had of the church. been head at least two hours.

Mr. Hull was born in London, Out., March 24, 1854. When six years old his family moved to Derby, where his father continued in the carriage business. At the age of 13 he began his apprenticeship in the same business and was known as one of the best workmen in this section. He came to this place over 40 years ago, but since that time has worked at Irasburg, West Burke, Lennoxville, P. Q., and Concord. At the latter place he and his brother conducted for some years one of the best known carriage-making and repairing shops in Northern Vermont. After the dissolution of that firm Mr. Hull came here 12 years ago and conducted a shop until last week.

Besides his wife he leaves one brother, Albert J. Hull of Concord, one sister, Mrs. Ida Blanchard of Concord, N. H. Healso leaves one son, George W. Hull, a daughter, Mrs. Pearl Bedard of Sherbrooke, P. Q., and an adopted daughter, Dorothy, aged three years.

Among The Bowlers.

The Gilt Edge bowling league started off with a rush last Tuesday night. The Somerset and Independent teams opened and the total pinfall of 4099 certainly looked good for the beginning of the season. Somerset won two out of the three games and heads the league in the number of pins bowled over. Wednesday night the Centrals defeated No. 6, 2 to 1, although the latter team rolled up the largest total pinfall. Elite team had its troubles Friday night in downing the Laurels by the final score of two games to one and a lead of 88 pins. Some good individual strings were rolled during the week, with Merwin Gray's average of 158 on Tuesday night at the head. The nights of the matches are Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday and interest in the league is continually

Our Rare Trees.

The subject of the trees of St. Johnsbury was taken up with six classes at the Museum last week. As a consequence a large number of young people are strongly interested in searching for the rare trees of this vicinity, and are re-ceiving much appreciated help from the tree owners. The Norway maple, originally a cultivated tree but now very ommon throughout southern New Engand, is very rare about here but a half dozen specimens have been located. Oaks are not common and the red oak is practically the only variety. A few trees however of the white oak variety, have been located by the sharp-eyed children. Other rare trees are the boxelder, Lom-Other rare trees are the boxelder, Lone and pathos intermingled with bardy poplar, mountain maguolia, slippery elm, hop hornbean, European rowan tree, buckeye, horse chestnut and California poplar.
